

FRÅN STAD TILL STRAND

Från Stad till Strand is a travel blog about trips both near and far away. The main focus is about travelling with children and family but there is also information for the solo traveler. I have done more than 80 trips abroad and am usually looking for cool urban environments, stylish hotels, beautiful nature, good food and lovely beaches.

I have a degree in journalism and many years experience of photography and image editing.

Member of Svenska Resebloggar, Influencers of Sweden and NordicTB.
